

A Message From Our Pastor

My Dear Loved Ones,

We have come to the final Sunday of this year. Although it seems like we just started, the year has gone by and we are poised to begin again.

Please allow me to express my THANKS to every disciple of our church who has been faithful in their surrender of self, service and substance. You help us be the great church that we are, and you enable us to do the great things that we do. Any success we enjoy in ministry is directly connected to individuals within this congregation who are serious about their discipleship and are committed to putting God first in every area of their lives. I salute you and pray that in the coming year, more will be added to this number so that our best can get even better for the Lord.

As an urban congregation, SLBC is presented with a unique set of challenges. Each of them is really an opportunity to creatively represent Christ and “Make Him Known” to persons in distress and in need.

I invite you to join me in praying, not only for SLBC, but praying that in this new year EVERY PERSON who claims to love the Lord will be serious about following Him, trusting Him, and obeying Him. As we do, God will bless us...beyond our wildest expectations.

I look forward to seeing you on Watchnight and as we begin a new year of DETERMINED service to our Christ.

I close the new year still in love with the Lord and with you!

Pastor Clayton
